

NATIVE AMERICAN FATHERHOOD AND FAMILIES ASSOCIATION

Fatherhood is Sacred® and Motherhood is Sacred®

Logic Model January 2024

Problem	PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS	RESOURCES/INPUTS	ACTIVITIES/OUTPUTS	EXPECTED OUTCOMES
Native American fathers are seen as the problems in their families, tribes, and communities Native Americans have high levels of intergenerational trauma Native American communities are impacted by high rates of divorce, abuse, substance use, suicide, poverty, and general unfamiliarity with the good life	Native American Fathers Native American Mothers Native aspiring parents Adults interested in learning culturally rooted methods for inspiring change in Native populations	Key Staff <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Native American Fatherhood and Families Association (NAFFA) President and Founder • NAFFA support Staff • Facilitator Coordinator • Director of Training NAFFA’s network of community partners throughout the United States and Canada Any/all necessary support from NAFFA’s leadership and business operations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 3-day Intensive Facilitator Training Sessions • Trained Facilitators take curriculum to their home communities in setting such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF program) ○ Behavioral Health ○ Social Services ○ Criminal Justice ○ Probation ○ Incarceration ○ Education ○ Head Start ○ Boys & Girls Club 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Healing from intergenerational trauma ▪ Participants reunite with families ▪ Participants re-establish legal guardianship of their children ▪ Participants seek training and educational opportunities ▪ Participants secure stable employment ▪ Decreased recidivism