

Project Healthy Grandparents
Georgia State University

Logic Model

Goals	Objectives	Activities	Outcomes	Assessment Methods
Grandparents will raise their grandchildren in a nurturing family environment	To reduce stress among grandparents relative to parenting; To decrease grandparent's sense of social isolation by enhancing their social support network	Family case management practice by social workers Monthly scheduled social support meetings Monthly scheduled parent education classes	All families will receive a minimum of 12 social work visits per year 40% of program participants will attend the 12 social support meetings per year	Family Resource Scale Family Support Scale Brief Symptom Inventory Client Satisfaction Case management process notes
Grandparents will have a strong sense of empowerment in executing their parenting skills the "second time around"	To enhance the grandparents sense of competence and confidence in addressing their grandchild's needs To offer grandparents various opportunities to exert their leadership skills to address individual, group and/or community issues	Individual counseling by social workers/nurses Monthly scheduled parent education classes Monthly Grandparent Leadership Team meetings designed to allow grandparents identify, problem solve, and resolve issues relative to their common interests	The Grandparent Leadership Team will continue to have stable membership and support by current and alumnae members of PHG	Family Empowerment Scale Listing of activities developed and executed by the Grandparent Leadership Team
Grandparents quality of life with not be	To help grandparents recognize the	Grandparents will receive blood pressure	All grandparents will receive a physical	Health Risk Appraisal SF-36

Goals	Objectives	Activities	Outcomes	Assessment Methods
diminished while parenting their grandchildren because of physical/mental decline	importance of a healthy lifestyle for themselves and their grandchildren	screenings, cholesterol checks, and diabetes screenings Grandparents will receive individualized health education by registered nurses relevant to their specific physical status Grandparents will be referred to adult mental health community programs as needed Close supervision and monitoring by a “high risk” nurse for participants with acute medical conditions Transportation to and from group meeting site	assessment by registered nurses on a monthly basis 40% of the grandparents will be referred to local medical providers for continued treatment and follow-up for defined medical/mental conditions	RN Progress Notes RN Process Measure
Early Intervention: Young grandchildren (birth -5 years) at risk for developmental delays will be nurtured in a positive family environment that supports each	To measure the incidence of developmental delay in all young grandchildren subject to prenatal exposure to substance abuse	Monthly home visits by an early intervention specialist Complete developmental assessment by staff of the Emory University Neurodevelopmental	100% of grandchildren ages 0-5 years will be assessed on their fine and gross motor, behavioral, speech, and emotional development at the Emory University	Denver Developmental Screening Ages and Stages Questionnaire Early Intervention Specialist Progress Notes

Goals	Objectives	Activities	Outcomes	Assessment Methods
individual child's needs Grandparents will recognize the necessary resources needed to support the growth and development of their grandchildren	To facilitate grandchildren's access and follow-up to comprehensive early intervention services	Clinic Referrals to appropriate developmental community support programs targeted to meet the individual needs of the grandchildren Transportation to and from Emory University Neurodevelopmental Clinic	Neurodevelopmental Clinic All grandparents whose grandchildren are at risk for developmental delay will receive individual counseling/support on the growth and development of their grandchild	